My internship report (600 – 1000 words) covers the following points:

1. Description of the internship position and its field of business
2. Areas of work/tasks/focus of activities during the internship, opportunities to apply content and methods learned during studies, key competencies acquired/deepened
3. Reflection: how does the internship complement my studies? What is the significance of the internship for my further education and/or my career choice and/or my future professional activity?
4. Conclusion

I have written the internship report myself.
