

RESEARCH SEMINAR IN ECONOMIC HISTORY SPRING 2026

25 FEBRUARY • DAVID KNAUß (UNIVERSITÄT HOHENHEIM)

From Stock Market Turmoil to Real Economic Impact: Assessing the Panic of 1873 Using Commercial Register Entries

18 MARCH • SARAH FERBER (UNIVERSITÄT ERLANGEN-NÜRNBERG)

The Long-Run Impact of the Cape Colonial Education System

25 MARCH • LAETITIA LENEL (UNIVERSITÄT DUISBURG-ESSEN)

Decline. On the Circulation of Narratives of Decline in the Humanities, the Social Sciences and Politics

15 APRIL • THILO ALBERS (UNIVERSITÄT MÜNSTER)

Has the Regulatory Cycle Weakened? Evidence from a Century of Lawmaking

29 APRIL • STEPHEN BILLINGTON (ULSTER UNIVERSITY)

Clause and Effect: Public Procurement of Innovation during the First Industrial Revolution

13 MAY • PAMFILI ANTIPA (LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS)

The Deposit-Taker of Last Resort

20 MAY • JANKO WILZBACH (UNIVERSITÄT MANNHEIM)

Demography during Subsistence Crisis: The Effects of the 1845 Potato Blight in Southwest Germany

27 MAY • SELIN DILLI (UNIVERSITÄT UTRECHT)

Women's Entrepreneurial Trends during the Long 20th Century: A Comparative Analysis.

The talks take place from 5.15 pm to 6.45 pm, in L7, 3-5, room P043.

Everybody is welcome to attend.